VALUABLE REAL ESTATE FOR SALE IN THE TOWN OF SALEM.

AS EXECUTORS OF JAMES HALL DEC'D the undersigned will sell to the highest bidder, on Thursday, February 24th the valuable real estate of said deceased, consisting of one of the most desirable business stands in the town of Salem, situated on Main Street, on the North-West corner of the public square, facing the Salem Female Academy. Said property is a new, and commodious brick building with business stand and dwelling combined,

Also, a large two story frame building on Main street likewise a good stand, business having been conducted therein for many years.

Also, a highly valuable business stand in the town of Winston, on the N. W. Corner of the Court House square. This property is a new frame building and is deemed one of the best business stands in Winston.

Also, sixty acres of land, situated within ½ of a mile from the Court House, having all the necessary buildings thereon. All of this property is deemed highly valuable from the fact that the N. W. N. Parties from the East desiring to locate in a flourishing and healthy portion of the State in a highly moral and industrious community, with the advantages of excellent schools, will perhaps never again meet with so favorable an opportunity for the purchase of desirable real estate, as that now offered.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

Senator Morton, of Indiana, the ablest Republican in the Senate, in debate on the Virginia resolutions, Wednesday, January 19, made this declaration, without dissent from one Republican Senator:

"I think, Mr. President, that the experience of the last eighteen months has brought the Congress of the United States now to the point that we should declare that we accept of the legal consequences of the doctrine of reconstruction. I know the common idea was, without consideration, a year and a half ago, that when these States were once admitted, or, if you please, restored to representation, they passed entirely from under the jurisdiction of Congress and we were done with them. Sir, that was illogical, and experience has now shown that we cannot stand upon that doctrine. We must follow the doctrine of reconstruction to its consequences, and, if necessary, we must deal with these states after they have been re-admitted."

Here is the daring avowal of a deliberate purpose to hold the Southern States, despite reconstruction, despite re-admission, still subjugated and at the mercy of the Republican party—by whose necessities their future treatment is to be determined.—Savannah News.

THE COLORED SENATOR FROM MISSISSIPPI.—The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Gazette thus speaks of the appearance of the colored Senator from Mississippi in the Senate chamber on Monday last:

"The Senate floor was the centre of attraction this morning. Revel, the colored Senator from Mississippi, made his appearance a little before noon, and strutted several times across the Senate Chamber. He is shortish, stoutish, yellow as a guinea, wore a snuff-colored overcoat, and has all the characteristics of a plantation negro. Out of one corner of his eye he looked curiously at the seat formerly occupied by Mr. Jefferson Davis, which it will be his pleasure to fill. This will give him, for neighbors, Kentucky on one side and West Virginia on the other. The new fledged Senator appeared very much at his ease, and moved about under the escort of Senators Morton and Drake, who welcomed and made much of him. Revel was surrounded while in the Senate Chamber by a crowd of pages and newspaper men, to whom he condescended to be affable with plantation dignity and corn-field grace.—He disappeared suddenly the moment the Vice President's gavel descended on the desk to call to morning prayer. Subsequently Mr. Morton introduced a bill for the admission of the State of Mississippi into the Union, which was read by title, and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

UNHAPPY AND DEGENERATIVE VIRGINIA.—At length, after a sharp struggle in both Houses of Congress, between the gallant democracy and their usurping opponents, might, and the wrath of man have triumphed over justice and the constitution, and "the mother of States," is once more permitted to resume her position as a member of this so called "Union."

Does she enter the arena again with banners advanced, and crest erect? Alas, no! She comes in, shorn of her power; broken in spirit, and the plaything and tool of her Radical oppressors.

And yet even in Richmond, that proud city, once the centre of a glorious young nation, and the theatre of deeds and events which time can never efface, the humiliating spectacle is presented of a portion of her people, asking for a federal salute of artillery, to celebrate the hour of her shame and dishonor.

Is this the glorious old Dominion, the cradle of Statesmen and the home of a Washington and Patrick Henry? Who can credit the statement?—Cuthbert Appeal.

A BLUSH.—Goethe was in company with a mother and daughter, when the latter, being reproved for something, blushed and burst into tears. He said to the mother,

"How beautiful your reproach has made your daughter. That crimson hue and those silvery tears become her much better than any ornament of gold or pearls; these may be hung on the neck of any woman; those are never seen unless connected with moral purity. A full-blown flower sprinkled with purer dew is not so beautiful as this child blushing beneath her parent's displeasure, and shedding tears of sorrow for her fault. A blush is the sign which nature hangs out to show where chastity and true honor dwell."

Dr. Livingstone writes that he spent a year exploring the section of country lying south of Lake Tangamjaka, which, containing many small springs or lake fountains, he asserts is the true source of the Nile. It this be so, the Nile is by far the longest river in the world. It extends from latitude 10 or 12 degrees south, to latitude 31 degrees north, a distance, in a straight line, of nearly or quite 3 000 miles, or much more than the whole breadth of the temperate zone between the Tropic of Cancer and the Polar Circle, within which lies nineteen twentieths of the Continent of North America.

A GEM—It has been eloquently said that if Christianity was compelled to flee from the mansions of the great, the academies of the philosophers, the halls of legislators, the throngs of busy men, we should find her last retreat with woman, at the fireside. Her last audience would be the children gathering round the mother's knee, the last sacrifice the secret prayer, escaping in silence from her lips, and heard, perhaps, only at the throne of God.

That was a beautiful idea in the mind of a little girl, who on beholding a rosebush, on the topmost stem of which the oldest rose was fading, while below and around it three beautiful crimson buds were just unfolding their charms at once, earnestly exclaimed to her brother, "See Willie, these little buds have awakened just in time to kiss their mother before she dies."

No man can tell whether he is rich or poor by turning to his ledger. It is the heart that makes a man rich. He is rich or poor according to what he is, not according to what he has.

Sunday is a day of account, and a candid account every seventh day is the best preparation for the great day of account.—Lord Kames.

KEROSENE LIGHTS PERFECTED!

DANFORD'S

Atmospheric

KEROSENE LAMP.

THE ONLY PERFECTLY SAFE LAMP IN USE.

Artificial Light, of some sort, is a universal necessity; a safe cheap, and brilliant one is a luxury; a luxury, too, only enjoyed heretofore by those living in large towns or cities where Gas is used. Years of study and thousands of dollars (annually) have been spent by experiments of different kinds, in trying to invent and perfect a Burner or Lamp by which Coal Oil or Kerosene could be burned practicably, without the expense and trouble of chimneys; this long looked for and much desired subject has at last been obtained, and is styled the

ATMOSPHERIC KEROSENE LAMP!

Its adaptation to Dwellings, Churches, Railroads, Steamboats, Hotels, Stores, &c., is unsurpassed; in short, this invention brings the luxurious and brilliant Gas Light within the reach of all, whether in the City or Country. It gives the light of a six-foot Gas Burner, for less than one cent per hour, or double the quantity of light, of the ordinary chimney-lamp will burn one third less oil; will burn, when turned down to a taper light ten hours for one cent; is free from smoke or smell; can be carried from room to room; the wind will not blow it out.

This Lamp is destined to supersede all portable artificial light or chimney lamps now in use and needs only to be seen to be appreciated; thousand of them will find ready sale in every county; no family that uses this light for one evening will again be annoyed with the chimney-lamps. Thousands of them will be used in cities, as this light is one half cheaper than Coal Gas, and much more pleasant to the eye.

The sole right for the sale of this Lamp can be had for the entire State or the same will be sold by Counties.

Parties purchasing will be supplied, at wholesale, with the lamp and fixtures at reasonable rates.

Immediate application should be made to secure the choice of Counties.

The Lamp can be seen in full operation durning the day and evening at the Yarbrough House.

All letters will receive prompt attention and full explanation of the Lamp given.

SAW MILLS.

I AM PREPARED TO PUT UP DOUBLE CIRcle Saw Mills in workman-like manner for cane grinding mills.

There are now 440 of these Mills in operation, and in no case have they failed to give entire satisfaction. One advantage of this Mill is, that the sawyer, without changing his position, gives the back-ward and forward motion to the carriage, with a single lever; and cut the log at both ends at the same time, this is a saving of one hand to the mill. This is no humbug. I am responsible for what I say. My residence is 20 miles south of Raleigh, on Neal's Creek. For further particulars address me at Raleigh, N. C.

P. J. WRAY.

I will be at Lynn Adams' Store on the 2nd to the 5th of February, where persons desiring to see me will please call.

READ THE FOLLOWING.

Mr. P. J. Wray, Dear Sir:—I am much pleased with my double Circular saw Mill, built by you. I can cut a log 15 in two deep, 20 feet long, in 45 seconds, with my 12 feet overshot wheel. We have to-day cut 5,000 feet weather-boarding, flooring, and inch board, in eight hours.

Dec 23rd 1869. AL. ANDOE FARTIN.

Mr. P. J. Wray:—We are well pleased with our new double action Mill, that you set to work for us. We can cut twice the amount of lumber that we could with the old Mill of 48 inch saw and same water wheel.

JAMES PENNY.

This last mentioned Mill may be seen on Walnut Creek, 5 miles South of Raleigh.

"MIXED AND SCATTERING."

Such is the title of an editorial to be found in the Charlotte Democrat, of last week. The title is well chosen and well sustained throughout, such "mixing and scattering" is seldom to be met with in one short editorial. Pike is well pleased with Yates' "mixture" and calls him "brother Yates."

The Democrat say we are "mad;" that we "injure the Conservative party," it is not only his opinion, but the opinion "of three other conservative editors in three different towns of the State," whose names he forbears to give, as they may speak for themselves by and by. (We take the liberty to name the papers, Standard, Pioneer, and Newbern Times.)

He charges us indirectly with "gubernatorial aspirations;" he blames us for the ascendency of the Republican party in the State. "We believe," says Dr. Yates, the mixer, "that the people are tired of Radicals of all sorts, whether professed conservatives or republicans, and therefore we tell Mr. Turner that, there is a class of moderate men in this State who will not acknowledge him as their leader, but who will use fair, calm and deliberate argument to reform abuses and put honest men into office, and to do this they will invite the co-operation of the good and well meaning of both parties, white and black." "Such extreme men as Mr. Turner and his little crew must take back seats," &c. &c. "If we were striving to publish a paper to please Mr. Turner and his little proscriptive, vindictive, spiteful, cringe, we might feel uneasy at his dissatisfaction with our course."

Such is Dr. Yates' "mixture" as compounded in the Charlotte Democrat. He pretends the "mixture" is for the SENTINEL alone, but that pretence is ill founded, for it is clearly a mixture in which Holden, Rufus Barringer, and Dr. Sloan, have had or are to have a share. It is clear from this "mixture" that Mr. Yates wants a third party to be composed of "moderate men," like himself and Holden!

We must take our part of the "mixture" and then give Holden, the negroes and the "moderate men," their portion.

"Not mad, most noble Festus, but speak forth the words of truth and soberness." We would as soon think of getting mad at a sick woman's striking us, as at that moderate man, Dr. Yates, the mixer. The Doctor is always too hot or too cold, too sweet or too acid. When that just, affable, well balanced, even tempered man, Gov. Worth, of blessed memory, filled the Executive chair, he was too moderate for the then immoderate Yates; in derision he called him "our Quaker Governor," "too much moderation" said the Doctor.

When brother Pell edited the SENTINEL with ability equaled only by his moderation and christian charity for all men and all parties, Dr. Yates "mixed" for him.—The Dr. was so angered at brother Pell's course that he was forced to quit the common civility among editors of exchanging papers!

When Captain Durham, whose temperament is unlike that of the two just named, denounced Holden, the bosom friend of Dr. Yates, and the Radicals, as politically vile and unclean, the Dr. felt Durham's pulse and his diagnosis was, too much force, vim and violence. He must have a dose of "moderation" through the Charlotte Democrat once a week for a full lunar month, to restore his equanimity of temper.

As to "Gubernatorial aspiration," we are not liable even to suspicion of such. The Dr. forgets it is near four years before that election takes place; besides, the field has been twice opened to us and we declined to enter.

It was with great reluctance that Governor Worth became a candidate in 1867. The Doctor's friend, Holden, has often said "but for Jo Turner he would have had no opposition," when he was beaten by Governor Worth. However this may be, we spent a week urging Governor Worth to be a candidate. Not twelve hours before he consented to run, he informed us in the most positive manner that he could not be a candidate, and he and his friends would put us forward as the candidate. We declined such an arrangement and with our friends, Winstead of Bertie and Clarke of Craven, doubled our solicitations for him to be a candidate. Again, in 1868, when the nominating committee wrote us that we should be nominated if we would accept, we positively declined. The Dr. must feel our pulse again, we are not sick this way, his diagnosis is not correct.

We have heard that Dr. Yates, himself, was hanging out his sign for the Gubernatorial nomination, and this may account for his editorials upon us. We say to the Dr. we abandon the field to him; take it, and let there be no strife 'tetween us and thee.'

Since Holden and Brownlow have been called "Governor," the honor has greatly deteriorated, and is not worth struggling for.

We suggest to Dr. Yates to cease his warfare upon those with whom he pretends to act; make war upon Holden, Littlefield, and the carpet-baggers, who are plundering the State; what boots it to the Doctor if Gov. Worth and Brother Pell reasoned too gently? What boots it to him, if Durham and Turner strike too hard? Why did he not first write to us and correct in private, before chiding us in public?

The Doctor says we cannot "lead the moderate men" including the "three editors in three different towns." We are not ambitious to lead; we only wish to join the people of the State in bringing to justice the felons and thieves who have brought ruin upon the country. The Doctor and his three moderate editors may try it, but they will be unable to keep pace up the abhorrence the people feel for his friend Holden, and his carpet bag allies.

We tell the Doctor that for us to look with feelings of "moderation" upon the ruin and dishonor of the State would be to wink at crime. We shall make no apology to him nor the "moderate men," nor "the three moderate editors," who are offended at our ardor and zeal in denouncing rogues. We will not sit unconcerned while Sheffner's bill invades our liberty, nor look in silence upon public robbery by the Ring.—At every hazard we will repel the aggressors and bring the thieves to justice, whoever may protect them in their villainy, and whoever may partake of their plunder.

BATTLE OF FAYETTEVILLE STREET.

In the notice we took of Moore of Chowan, recently, we understand that he said he would not have minded it so much, but for being coupled with such a rascal as Sinclair. We do not like to repeat an offence even to one of the "hands," we shall, therefore, leave out Sinclair's name in this account of "the battle of Fayetteville street," on yesterday, especially as it relates alone to Moore of Chowan.

We shall not speak of this loyal neophyte to Radicalism as a politician; we leave him, politically, to John Page and his negro constituency.

We had heard of Col. Moore's looking for us in company with a friend of his, but we did not much credit it. On yesterday, (Monday,) at exactly two minutes past two o'clock, town time, as we were standing in the entrance to Dr. Crawford's office, on Fayetteville Street, talking with Mr. Brown, the Artist, we by a coup de œil, (quick glance of the eye,) discovered Col. Moore advancing on us, down Fayetteville Street, his brother, Augustus on the left, and a stranger on the right. The Colonel was armed, and masked behind a heavy shawl.

With a coup de main (excuse this second attempt at French, it means, quick or sudden movement,) the Colonel divested himself of his shawl and came scratching at us somewhat like a crab. He attempted to throw his pondrous paunch upon us, as he once did on Col. Paine, but we stepped back and the Colonel fell sprawling on the floor of the passage.

We peacefully drew a pistol that we commonly carry in case of fire, or other accident, but the Colonel's brother, Augustus, seized our pistol and called out to us not to shoot his brother, and so ended the fight. If the Colonel had not been armed, we should have turned him over on his back and fought him as the wreckers of Currituck fight big sea turtles. We are sure, from the length of time it took the Colonel to rise while his face was down, he never would have risen, if he had been turned on his back.

After the Colonel fell, it is proper to say, that while we were backing along the passage to keep Augustus Moore from taking hold of us, we stumbled against the steps behind us and fell.

Thus ended the bloodless fights, there was no one hurt unless the Colonel bruised his belly when he fell. We are as well pleased with the result of this fight as we were of that of Davis street. We are glad that Mr. Brown and Mr. Augustus Moore intervened, though we had all the advantage of position when the Colonel fell.

After the fight, the Colonel retreated to Pepper's, where he and Pike and Churchill and other friends talked over the affair.—We retreated, orderly, to our office, where we found Squire Massey, of Johnston, calling our Local to account. That affair was settled without bloodshed, also.

THE GOVERNOR IS INFORMED.

Soon after the above battle, Hawk Rogers and "my son Joe," entered the Governor's office. Hawk reported to the Governor that "Moore gave Turner a Heenan blow, and knocked him down." Joe said, "Turner might have killed Moore, but he would have been immediately killed himself." We think Joe mistaken in his report, as he was about our jumping a ten foot fence to get out of his way at the depot!

Sinclair reports that "Turner was knocked down." When Sinclair was a preacher and, it is to be charitably supposed, had some shadow of desire of trying to appear to speak truth, his Church charged him with lying and unfrocked him; we mention this little incident to show that his report of the affair may be taken with several grains of allowance.

"Let us have peace."

"The Democracy are opposed to appropriations for schools."

Standard 4th inst.

Some people have an ingenious way of going round about the truth without ever touching it; others without circumlocution march boldly up to its opposite, and embrace it, either from the love of it, or from the force of habit. The quotation above is an instance of the latter way of doing things.

The Raleigh Standard, soon after the meeting of the Legislature, declared that "no more appropriations" must be made "for any purpose." We notice the article, and charged upon the Standard and its party then, that its language showed it was opposed to any appropriation for schools, and it hasn't yet denied the charge. If the Standard denies this we will prove it on him, point blank.

We have stated the above facts to show who is opposed to appropriations for schools.

Now, with regard to the Democracy being opposed to appropriations for schools, as charged by the Standard, we have to say that the charge is made without the shadow of proof to sustain it. That voracious sheet cannot adduce one word uttered by any Democratic meeting or journal, in opposition to appropriations for schools.

As Shakspear says, "How this world is given to lying."

GRAND INQUEST.

The grand inquest for Wake county, at last term, under Judge Watts, did not amount to much. Calvin J. Rogers, the postmaster of this city, was presented for proving too much mileage as a County Commissioner. So far so good; but what becomes of Littlefield, and Laflin, and Dewease? We informed the foreman of the Grand Jury of their villainy; in the Clerk's office is proof against Littlefield, that he made and executed a bond to a fictitious person, calling him "James Smith," which bond was sued upon. This was illegal and immoral conduct, for which he is indictable.

When Judge Watts heard that we had spoken to the foreman, he said he "was pained to hear that persons had been tampering with the Grand Jury;" he said this when he discharged the Grand Jury on Tuesday. The clear and manifest duty of his Greasiness, instead of dismissing the Grand Jury with such a charge, was to order them to their room again and instruct them to present the man who had been tampering with them. But instead of that he dismissed them in "pain," when he knew or pretended to know that they had been tampered with.

It may not be amiss to let Judge Watts know what we once saw Judge Caldwell do in Person Court. Sam Draper, one of Senator Winstead's constituents, committed perjury in open Court, upon his cross examination as a witness. The Judge presiding ordered the Sheriff to call the grand jury from their room to the bar, when he informed them that a foul perjury had been committed in open Court. He then ordered the Solicitor to send witnesses before the grand jury. A bill was found, Sam Draper tried, convicted and whipped before night.

Did it never occur to greasy Sam that it was his duty to have ordered the grand jury to their room and have instructed them to present the editor of the SENTINEL for tampering with them? The conduct of his greasiness convicts his greasy self, and shows him guilty of a gross declination of judicial duty.

We are not allowed to know the secrets of a Grand Jury, but we suppose Gen. Cox, the Solicitor, drew a bill against Littlefield for putting out a note for $3,000 to "James Smith," when there was no such man, and thus imposing upon Mr. Shaffer, who received the note from John Dewease as genuine and legal. John Dewease is said to have received the note from Laflin; so we might say, Solicitor Cox, we suppose, drew a bill against these three carpet bag gentry, and then we have to suppose the Grand Jury of Wake ignored the bill.

Grand Jurors must not be complained of, but it is passing strange that the most stupendous frauds and conspiracies to cheat, are concocted in this city and Solicitor Cox is not able to get bills of indictment against the guilty parties.

It is so, and why it is so, will one day be found out, just as sure as the cause of the Governor's present and profound silence on public robbery will be found out.

THE ARTFUL DODGERS.

We think men sent to attend to business for the people at the rate of seven dollars a day, ought to attend to that business, or adjourn or resign and go home.

There are to-day, some fifteen or twenty Senators, and forty or fifty members of the House, absent on leave, each drawing his seven dollars per day. Take the lowest numbers, 15 and 40, making 55 members, at $7 each, is $385 per day that the State is paying for services not rendered.

On yesterday, motion after motion, in the Senate failed for want of a quorum; bills failing to pass for the same reason. Mr. Love moved to adjourn, which failed; on a call of the House a quorum was present; Mr. Welker moved a suspension of the rules to put the bill to abolish the office of State Printer on its passage—the bill passed, but Messrs. Blythe and White dodged.

Mr. Welker moved to suspend the rule so as to have the bill engrossed at once and sent to the House, but on this a quorum could not be had—Blythe, Colgrove and White dodged, thus defeating the motion.

In the House Mr. Welch introduced a resolution declaring it the sense of the House that the Legislative term expires on the first Thursday in August, 1870, and asked a suspension of the rules to put the resolution on its passage—the motion failed for want of a quorum, though it was evident there was a quorum present.

Mr. Welch, to test the matter, asked a call of the House, which was had, and 75 responded to their names.

This call disclosed the dodgers on his resolution. They are as follows: Blair, Carson, Cherry, col., Crawford, col., Dixon, Eagles, col., Forkner, col., Gilbert, Graham, Hayes, col., Ingram, Kinney, Laflin, Leary, col., Long, of Chatham, Long, of Richmond, Mayo, col., McCanless, Moore, of Chowan, Morrill, Morris, col., Proctor, Renfrow, Reynolds, col., Sinclair, Simmonds, Smith, of Martin, Stephens, Waldrop and Wilson.

LOUD-LAUGHING LAFLIN.

This distinguished laugher and Representative of Pitt county, arrived on Saturday night and reported that Littlefield would be in on the train Monday night.

Now we shall see what we shall see—now we shall hear what we shall hear.

If Laflin is not "James Smith," the fictitious man to whom Littlefield made the note payable, he will say so on the floor of the House, when he rises to a "question of privilege." If Laflin let Dewease have the "James Smith" note, he should speak of it; if he did not let him have it, he should speak of it. Mr. Churchill of the Standard office has proclaimed it on the streets that Laflin knew all about the "James Smith" note and the illegal and corrupt purpose for which it was executed, and he expressed the hope that the Grand Jury would indict both Dewease and Laflin for their guilty complicity in the "James Smith" note.

Come Prince let us hear from you.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

Bill to amend an act passed 1855, creating one million of preferred stock in the North Carolina Railroad company.

The question being on the motion of Mr. Stephens to indefinitely postpone the bill, which prevailed.

SPECIAL ORDER.

Bill to repeal certain acts passed at the sessions of 1868–'69, making appropriations to Railroad companies.

Mr. Graham urged the passage of the bill, he introduced it in the early part of the session, and the Senate had her full time to consider its merits. It was true there had been several acts passed in relation to the subject, some might deem it unnecessary on that ground to pass this bill, yet he did not believe the action already taken would accomplish the demands of the people; the resolution instructing the Treasurer to stop the payment of interest on the special tax bonds, was worth nothing, as the Treasurer can be compelled by mandamus to pay the interest, and the only thing that would stop it, would be to show that said appropriations were unconstitutional, and that we have the right to repeal the acts making the appropriations, an act accordingly.

Mr. Cook offered a substitute for the bill.

Mr. Brogden said he desired to discuss the subject but was not prepared to do so now, and moved that the further consideration of the subject be postponed until Monday next, which motion prevailed.

Bill to annex a portion of New Hanover county to Sampson, passed.

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1870.

☞ THEO. N. RAMSAY, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

THE ROBESONIAN.—We have received the second number of a Weekly, published at Lumberton, under the above title. It is a good sized, well printed and lively sheet, and has "the largest circulation in the city." Price $3,00 a year, W. S. McDiarmid, Editor and proprietor.

NEARLY AS BAD AS THE KU KLUX.—Judge Tourgee has sentenced two colored members of the League and a colored woman to be hung, at the term of Orange Superior Court, now in session, and granted a new trial to another colored woman, who was found guilty by the jury. The two Leaguers are Bob Green and Tom Young who murdered Bialock, on Christmas last; the other, Henry Maloy with several aliases, connected with the same murder, will be tried to day, and will, no doubt, join the other two in the march of "old John Brown."

The woman Jinny Green, was convicted of the murder of her husband some eighteen months ago, and Jane Davis, the one who obtained a new trial, was convicted as accessary to the same. If Maloy should be convicted, of which there is little doubt, it will make four whom His Honor will sentence to swing. This is almost as bad as the ku klux, and if he don't mind he will have the militia after him.

STIRRING TIMES.—HAIL FROM THE TOMBS!—That aevigrous J. P. of Johnston, who so discombobulated the nerves of this Local by a threatening letter, on Saturday morning, made his appearance in our sanctum on Monday, which event occurring, immediately after the battle near the Art Gallery, was ominous and fear-inspiring. Why will men take delight in so torturing persons of nervous temperament? Mr. Massey came in and then—went out again. We await further developments in awful serenity.

A mail to Lillington is now established, to leave Fayetteville at 3 p. m., on Thursdays and get to Lillington (Harnett C. H.) on Friday by way of Little River Academy, Buan's Level, &c., and return to Fayetteville on Saturdays. A mail comes from Haywood to Lillington on Fridays, so both lines are connected.—Fayetteville Eagle.

THE WARRENTON FEMALE COLLEGE.—The continual throng of pupils pouring in from nearly every section of the State to this popular institution, is an evidence of its growing prosperity, and crowns with success the efforts of its able and efficient President, Mr. Jones, to restore to Warrenton her once proud reputation for the largest and finest seats of learning in the State.

Notwithstanding the industriously circulated reports, detrimental to the interests of this school throughout the State by envious and designing parties, to the effect that only twenty boarders could be entertained, comfortably, by Mr. Jones, nearly seventy have already entered, with the prospect of more to come. Thus it will be seen that this malicious rumor has utterly failed as to its purpose, and all the injury it contains will, ere long, "return home to roost."

DIRECTORS' MEETING.—At the meeting of the Directors of the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad, held in this city yesterday morning, Maj. S. W. Cole, of Anson, was elected a Director of the Company to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Hon. S. J. Person. Col. Walter L. Steele, of Richmond, was elected a Director on behalf of this Company to fill the vacancy also occasioned by Judge Person's death in the Directory of the Wilmington Railway Bridge Company.

Another meeting was held last night when the subject of finances was discussed. This involves much consideration and cannot be soon disposed of. The Directors meet again this morning at 10 o'clock to resume the discussion of the matter.—Wil. Journal, Feb. 4th.

But, happily, they have their antidote. DR. PLOWS.—We learn that Mitchell, Allen & Co., of Newbern, N. C., have procurred Steel Cotton Sweeps, made from the original patterns of David Dixon, Esq., of Georgia, they charge $5 for each, when stocked $7.

This firm is selling a large quantity of plows manufactured by themselves. They sell No. A. 6, 10, 11, and 50 plows at 2.50. Would it not be well for farmers to club in each neighborhood, and order together so as to get the freight cheap. NORFOLK, VA., Jan. 7, 1870.

Editor Sentinel, Raleigh, N. C.:

DEAR SIR:—Please allow us to state that the freight on Shell Lime has been reduced over half of former rates, on the S. & R., R. & G., W. & W. and N. C. Railroads. This arrangement to last until 18th of March, and to urge upon your people the real value of this Renovator of the soil, and the importance of sending us their cash orders now, that they may realize the advantages of this liberal reduction in freights,

SHAMELESS AND SILENT AUDACITY.

The Grand Jury of Wake, presented Littlefield for corrupt practices, in attempting to bribe members of the General Assembly; after this presentment the Governor appointed him State Printer. He also, after the presentment, appointed directors on the Western North Carolina Railroad, who made Littlefield President of that Road.—For seventy days Littlefield absents himself from the State to avoid and delay investigation into his many frauds, briberies, and corruptions. The Governor has made no effort to expose Littlefield's conduct.—He knows that Littlefield is charged openly—publicly charged, in New York, Florida, and North Carolina, with all manner of corrupt practices, frauds, and swindles, and yet our "cussing" beloved speaks not a word. Such silent and shameless audacity was never witnessed before. Remove him, Governor, as President of the Western Railroad; remove him as State Printer, or the people will have just grounds to suspect you of sharing in his ill gotten gains.

[Reported for the SENTINEL by the Deputy Clerk of the Supreme Court.]

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE IN BEAUFORT, N. C.

Old Beaufort has again been visited by a destructive fire on her water front. About seven o'clock last night, I was sitting "solitary and alone" in my store, enjoying a quiet smoke, when, to me, the terrible cry of Fire! aroused me from my meditations. I rushed to the door at once, and the smoke and flame had just begun to issue from the roof of a store nearly in my front on the other side of the street. The citizens, both white and colored were soon on the spot, but from the proximity of the buildings, and the combustible materials of which they were built, it was evident that no earthly power could save several of them from destruction. In less than two hours from the discovery of the fire, the stores occupied by the following parties were nothing more than a mass of smouldering ruins. C. P. Hone, D. S. Saunders, Wm. V. Geffroy, Fulcher & Bros., R. Lambert & Son, W. C. Lewis. These stores, except that of W. C. Lewis, were totally consumed, and his was totally destroyed, in order to stop the ravages of the flames Westward. On the East, the store of Mrs. Laura A. Norcom, is the only one left standing, and it was so seriously on fire at one time, that its destruction seemed inevitable, but by almost superhuman exertions, it was saved. From her store West, every one is gone until we come to the one recently occupied by Church Bell. As to the losses sustained by the parties, I have no data upon which to base an estimate. Some of the goods of nearly all, were saved in a damaged condition. The only parties insured so far as I can learn, were R. Lambert & Son and W. C. Lewis.

THE ORIGIN OF THE FIRE,

is a mystery. Some conjecture one thing and some another. Had it been the work of an incendiary, it seems to me he would have chosen a different hour of the night. As for myself, I have no theory to present; but I find it very hard, considering the circumstances, to reach the conclusion that any one set fire to the store of either W. C. Geffroy or D. S. Saunders. Fortunately for the town, the wind blew from the North and the angry flames had to spend their fury on the water. But for this, the greater portion of the town would have been in ashes this morning.

The conduct of the Firemen, the citizens, both white and colored, the officers and soldiers from Fort Macon, the officers and men from the Revenue Cutter, Seward, is worthy of the higest praise; and if anything unpleasant occurred, let it be set down to the excitement, caused by the ravages of the devouring element, and not to any intention on the part of any one to give offence.

The conduct of the colored citizens on this, as on former occasions, deserves special mention. As a class, they acted nobly, and I regret that any one should use any expression calculated to reflect on all, simply because a few may be unworthy. This rule will not apply to either white or colored. I believe in "equal and exact justice to all," and it affords me unfeigned pleasure to bear testimony to the general good conduct of our colored citizens.

Having suffered from the ravages of fire myself, I am prepared to sympathize with those who have shared a like calamity.

May Heaven yet smile upon our afflicted town, and cause the day of prosperity to dawn upon us!

Very respectfully,
L. W. M.

Beaufort, N. C., Feb. 4, 1870.

ANOTHER $7 MAN.—Does L. D. Wilkie, the radical representative from Jones county, in the Legislature, still draw $7 per day for his services to the State? He is seen loafing about this city as often as he is seen in the Legislative halls at Raleigh.

How long will the people bear with such men as Wilkie and Stevens?—Newbern Journal of Com.

SENATE.—Morton presented documents declaring that Georgia had adopted the 14th and 15th amendments.

The case of Hepburn vs. Griswold, brought from the Court of appeals of Ky., involving the legal tender law, was decided in the U. S. Supreme Court to-day. Chief Justice Chase delivered the opinion of the Court, sustaining the decision of the low er Court, that a contract made before the legal tender law could not be discharged in the United States notes.

The opinion is very long and discusses at great length the powers of Congress. It holds that Congress had no right to make the government notes a legal tender for pr existing private debts. It does not touch the question of contracts made since the law was passed.

This opinion was concurred in by Justices Nelson, Clifford, and Field. Justice Miller delivered the minority opinion concurred in by Justices Swayne and Davis, holding the law to be entirely constitutional; treating it principally as an incident to the war power.

PRATT'S "ASTRAL" OIL.

UNLIKE MANY OTHER ILLUMINATING Oils, is perfectly safe, and free from all adulterations or mixtures of any kind. It emits no offensive smell when burning, gives a soft and brilliant light, and can be used with the same assurance of safety as gas. Chemists pronounce it the best and safest Illuminating Oil ever offered to the public; and Insurance Companies indorse and urge upon consumers the use of the "Astral" Oil in preference to any other. It is now burned by thousands of families, and in no instance has any accident occurred from its use; a lamp filled with it, if upset and broken, will not explode. To prevent adulteration, the "Astral" Oil is packed only in the Guaranty Patent Cans, of 1 gallon and 5 gallons each, and each can is sealed in a manner that cannot be counterfeited. Every package with uncut seal we warrant. Be sure and get none but the genuine article, Pratt's "Astra" Oil, for sale by dealers everywhere, and at wholesale and retail by the proprietors

A NEW DISCOVERY!!

PHALON'S

"VITALIA;"

OR,

Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequalled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

MEDICAL.

HENRY'S

CARBOLIC

CONSTITUTION RENOVATOR,

OR

BLOOD CLEANSER.

This medicine is known to the faculty as being the concentrated fluid extract of Sarsaparilla united with other valuable medicinal herbs, and is guaranteed as chemically pure.

SCROFULA AND CONSUMPTION.

This remedy is compounded expressly for purifying and cleansing the blood of all infirmities, going at once to the fountain-head of disease. It extinguishes

Tumors, Consumption, Syphilis, Skin Eruptions, Salt Rheum, Boils, Rheumatism, Worm of Vitality, Scrofula.

We all know that the promiscuous vaccination indulged in during the late war bred the most villanous diseases. Vaccination sore was taken from the arms of many persons full of scrofulous sores.

Then of course the impurities of the scrofulous patient were absorbed in the blood of men otherwise without diseases, and both be ame infected alike. Men, women and children throughout all the West are most woefully diseased from this cause, and know not, until a few months ago, the origin of it.

Henry's Constitution Renovator

Relieves the Entire System of Pain and aches, enlivens the spirits, and sends new blood

BOUNDING THROUGH EVERY VEIN.

It imparties a

Sparkling Brightness to the Eye,
A Rosy Glow to the Cheek,
A Ruby Tinge to the Lips,
A Clearness to the Head,
Brightness to the Complexion,
Buoyancy to the Spirits,
And Happiness on all Sides.

For all affections of the kindneys it is unsurpassed.

People have been rescued, as it were, from the very jaws of death, by a timely use of this great remedy.

EXTRACTS FROM VARIOUS LETTERS.

"Doctor, I was vaccinated in the hospital.—Before that I had no skin disease. Until I had a bottle of your "Constitution Renovator" sent me by Mr. Roper, of Columbia, Mo., I suffered tortures with running sores since I used two bottles I am all well except a small sore on the calf of my left leg, and that is getting well fast."

This from a lady.—"And now my skin is as clear and fair as a babe's. My complexion, thanks to your "Renovator," is beautiful.

"Yes yes, I may well say such relief was unknown to me before. Enclosed find five dollars for six bottles; two families here want to try it."

"I was very much troubled with syphilis.—Your remedy seems to be curing me fast. Send 4 bottles per Express."

"No more rheumatism. Three bottles of Constitution Renovator have made me a new man."

"Doctor, enclosed find $5. Please send me a supply. Two families more want to try your Constitution Renovator."

We have not space for more of the above extracts, but you can ask your neighbor about the remedy. Every one has something good to say, as it cures every time.

FOR ALL DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS, RETENTION OF THE URINE, &c.

And for Female Diseases,

Nervous Prostration, Weakness, General Lassitude, and Want of Appetite, it is unsurpassed.

CAUTION!—In ordering our remedy always place the number of our Post-Office Box on your letters. The new law in our New York Post-Office compels this.

D. W. COURTS,	" Solicitor.
DR. E. BURKE HAYWOOD,	Examining Physician.
Gen'l. S. B. BUCKNER,	Manager Southern Dep't.

The Globe has peculiar claims upon the Southern country, from having first introduced the non-forfeiting feature in all its policies. Its President, Mr. Pliny Freeman, was the inventor of the ten-year, non-forfeiture plan, and introduced it in the Company with which he was then connected.

The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash, without deduction.

To those desiring it, the Company will issue policies, registered and certified by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York, as "secured by pledge of public stock."

OFFICE, ON FAYETTEVILLE STREET,

SUCCESS THE CRITERION!

THE BEST MANAGED IS THE BEST COMPANY!

DE SOTO MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI.

JAMES H. LUCAS, President.

CAPITAL STOCK, (PAID UP.) $150.000.00!

Stockholders bound for Double the Amount of Stock!

$100,000 DEPOSITED WITH THE INSURANCE DEPARTMENT OF MISSOURI.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL CASH COMPANY IN THE WEST!

The Stock of this Company is owned by the Capitalists of Louisville, Ky., and St. Louis, Mo. It is emphatically a Western and Southern Institution.

The DE SOTO has no desire to exalt its merits over those of other good Companies, nor to prosper on the decline of others, laboring in the same fields, and for the same grand object. Confident of its equal advantages with others, of whatever age or standing, it is willing to labor honorably for success, and hopes to deserve the public confidence by its energy, industry, and liberal spirit.

From the Missouri Republican.

"Few Companies have started out with such gratifying and flattering prospects of success, and under such favorable auspices. This Company has been extremely fortunate in the selection of its Directory. Its President, JAMES H. LUCAS, needs not a word of commendation from us. He enjoys a general reputation as a gentleman of wealth, unquestioned integrity, practical good sense, sound judgment and splendid business capacity.

The Directors rank among the first class of our merchants, bankers and citizens, as men of capital, financial ability and experience; men of probity and unblemished reputation. In the character of such a Directory, the community have the best guarantee that the business of the Company will be prudently and judiciously managed."

Policies issued on all the popular plans and all Non-Forfeiting.

Policy-holders may travel by the usual modes of conveyance, either by land, river, lake or coastwise, in any portion of the United States and Territories, the settled portions of the two Canadas, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and in time of peace may cross and recross the Atlantic Ocean by the usual passenger routes to, and travel and reside within, any portion of Europe.

And $5,000 ready to pay a loss of No. 34,161, so soon as the party authorized to receive the money appears.

The Company has been well tested throughout the State, as to its promptness in paying her losses, reliability, &c.

DIVIDENDS PAID AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR, AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1868. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

KNICKERBOCKER,	$16,54
EQUITABLE,	17,44
NORTH AMERICA,	21,16
BROOKLYN,	21,09
UNIVERSAL,	27,24
JOHN HANCOCK,	18,27
THE NATIONAL,	63,48
THE ÆTNA,	13,41

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It issued more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

Ask what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 589 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed nett assets summing up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13,837 new policies, more than any other Company, except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested nett assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."
